SECRET
Sir,
MYSORE
Dy. Secy
6.2.49

I am directed to state that in connection with the inauguration of the Steamer Service between Tuticorin and Colombo on the 9th February 1949 by His Excellency the Governor General of India, the Hon'ble the Premier and some Hon'ble Ministers of this Government propose to fly to the Kayattar airfield on the morning of 9-2-49. As this Government's Dove aircraft can accommodate only seven passengers, this Government desire to use the Mysore State Dakota for the flight. The charges connected with the flights from Bangalore to Kayattar via Madras and back will be borne by this Government. In anticipation of the approval of this arrangement by the Government of His Highness, Captain. V. Sundaram, the Director of Civil Aviation in Mysore (who was consulted previously regarding the availability of the Dakota and who stated that it could be made available) has been requested to bring the State Dakota to Madras on the evening of the 8th February. The plane will take off to Kayattar at 7.45 A.M. on 9-2-49, stay there that night and return to Madras on the morning of the 10th February 1949. I am to request that the concurrence of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore to the above arrangement may kindly be obtained.
